

2025 EmAGN VIC Committee Application form

WHO ARE WE?

The Emerging Architects + Graduates Network (EmAGN) is a membership group of the Australian Institute of Architects (the Institute). EmAGN seeks to represent the interests of graduates and early career architects, those who have graduated from a Masters in Architecture in the past 15 years. EmAGN aims to create a community for graduates and young professionals for their mutual support and to foster a collaborative culture that celebrates architecture.

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

It's up to you...

Bring your ideas to the table or jump on board and help with an existing event or initiative.

The formal stuff,

- The standard term of appointment for this voluntary role is 2 years.
- The committee aims to meet formally every once a month (January - November).
- We prefer in-person meetings, unless you are regionally based.
- Committee members must be within 15 years of graduation (from Masters of Architecture).
- Committee members should be financial members of the Institute of Architects.
- There is an opportunity for committee members to get involved in other VIC Chapter committees, such as POAC, Sustainability, Heritage, Regional; etc.

A little bit more about our committee,

- Our committee has two Co-chairs who help guide the committee.
- We try to keep our meetings informal and fun, with snacks provided.
- We meet on the last Wednesday of each month after work hours, between 6-7.30pm.
- We work in small teams or working groups to deliver events and information.
- Working groups are encouraged to keep in touch with each other between monthly committee meetings.

The year we are especially looking forward to including committee members with the following interests,

- (eg – broadening our regional presence, education, sustainability, First Nations knowledge, social media and publishing, building tours).

While we would love to have everyone involved there are a limited number of positions on the committee. If you are not successful in making it onto the EmAGN VIC committee we still encourage you to come along to our events and have a friendly chat with our committee members!
